

UFC 75 Results: Quinton Jackson beats Dan Henderson

Contributed by Billy Batts
Sunday, 09 September 2007
Last Updated Sunday, 09 September 2007

The UFC 75 results are in and Quinton Rampage Jackson was the unanimous victory in his MMA title fight. Rampage dominated his 5 round MMA fight with Dan Henderson to unified the Pride and UFC Light Heavyweight Titles. Online sportsbook BetUS.com had Quinton Jackson -140 odds and the favorite to retain the UFC Title.

"Rampage was just the stronger man down the stretch," stated Point-Spreads.com Fight Expert Brad Marchetti when asked to comment on the UFC 75 results for Quinton Jackson vs Dan Henderson. "Both of these guys displayed great skill and intelligence as expected but I was most impressed by both guys resiliency. Henderson ate some bombs and kept plugging away."

UFC 75 results for Quinton Jackson vs Dan Henderson round by round:

In round one, Henderson was able to close the distance keeping Quinton close at all times while landing several knees to the left thigh of Jackson. Rampage was able to score points towards the the end of the second round by landing several body blows. In the third round, Henderson was getting dominated throughout the third round but was able to roll Quinton Jackson over to gain an advantage. As the two fighters broke apart, Rampage landed a huge right hand stunning Dan Henderson as round three ended.

Both fighters were extremely tired going into the fourth round of their UFC 75 title fight. Quinton landed a huge strike to the face knocking Henderson to the ground. While on top, Quinton broke free from two arm bars and got him in a half guard. Quinton continued to hammer Henderson's body. The two MMA fighters were broke apart with one minute left in the round. Henderson was breaking down from all the body blows and Rampage landed a few solid shots to close out the fourth.

Henderson got cracked in the jaw to open the fifth and final round. Quinton was unable to get anything else off in the flurry. With two minutes left Henderson was able to stun Rampage. The two went toe to toe for a minute exchanging strikes to the face. Eventually Henderson was able to get a take down on Quinton and kept him there until 30 seconds left. That is when Rampage thrust up and started hammering Henderson's head until the bell rang.

After the fight, declared that his "hands hurt from punching him in the head". When asked about his excellent ground skills, Rampage replied "Most people do not know I can do ground because I like Big John McCartney pulling me off folks. That's how I roll!" We are sure that UFC President Dana White loved hearing that because MMA bettors that backed Rampage at BetUS.com did!