

Bodog Fight now available on DVD

Contributed by Robert Johnson
Wednesday, 12 September 2007
Last Updated Wednesday, 12 September 2007

The hardest-hitting show on television is now available on DVD. Mixed martial arts fans can now pick up Bodog Fight: The Complete First Series, which hits store shelves today.

"This DVD release marks the next big step in the evolution of Bodog Fight," says the show's creator, billionaire entertainment mogul Calvin Ayre.

"MMA is the fastest growing sport in the world today and Bodog Fight is leading the way. Fans have been asking us to make the show available on DVD, so we are absolutely thrilled to be able to make that happen. Enjoy!"

The four-disk set includes the show's ground-breaking first season, filmed on location in the jungles of Costa Rica, plus the landmark pay-per-view event Bodog Fight USA vs Russia from Vancouver, Canada.

With more than ten hours of non-stop action, the set features some of the world's best MMA athletes, including Roger Gracie, Antonio Silva, Eddie Alvarez and Ron Waterman, plus Trevor Prangle, Kyacey "Ice Cold" Uscola, Jorge "Gamebred" Masvidal, Nick "The Goat" Thompson, Amanda Buckner and Tara LaRosa.

With a ton of extra features, including fighter commentary, new behind the scenes footage and six never-before-seen fights, this DVD collection is sure to thrill even the most hardcore fan. Plus, get a bonus limited edition CD featuring tracks from Bodog Music artists.

Bodog Fight: The Complete First Series is available now at better retailers throughout the U.S. (in Canada Sept. 18) and online at NewBodogStore.com.