Tulsa Golden Hurricane at Arkansas Razorbacks College Football Pick: Betting Line-Tulsa by 7 1/2 (Total 78); Television-PPV; Kickoff 2:00 p.m. ET; Reynolds Razorback Stadium; Fayetteville, Ark. Betting odds provided by BetUS.com.

The No.18 (BCS) Tulsa University Golden Hurricane have made plenty of noise on the football field against weaker opposition but have received little mention by the national media. Until now!...The Golden Hurricane, headed by second year coach Todd Graham have been sneaky maneuvering their way to No. 18 in this weeks BCS poll. Then Sunday night had the nation to itself as they entertained Central Florida in front of a national television audience.

In the game, Tulsa whipped UCF to the tune of 49-19 easily covering the -24 point spread given it by oddsmakers at BetUS.com . On Saturday, Nov. 1, the Golden Hurricane will step out of C-USA play to travel into SEC territory to play the Arkansas Razorbacks. Here, Tulsa will be tested. Tulsa needs a signature win and a victory over the Razorbacks would show the country it belongs.

Oddsmakers at online sportsbook BetUS.com have installed the Golden Hurricane as a -7 1/2 point favorite ATS and -260 moneyline with a 78 total. Hogs backers are getting +220 moneyline juice.

It's true the Hogs are a program in transition under first year coach Bobby Petrino and a win at Fayetteville would not carry the weight a win over a bigger name SEC program would, but still, Arkansas is SEC and has SEC talent. Arkansas has better players than any team Tulsa has used as whipping boy over the last eight games.

Though ranked, Tulsa has four non-BCS programs ranked ahead of it. For Tulsa to have a chance of crashing the BCS party, all four, No. 10 Utah, No. 11 Boise State, No. 13 TCU and No. 16 Ball State must lose in the next month while at the same time Tulsa must avoid losing. Their biggest test will be at Arkansas.
