Point-Spreads.com is issuing a Betting Odds Point Spread Alert for the 2009 Capital One Bowl between Michigan State vs Georgia. The current point spread for the Capital One Bowl at betting giant Sportsbook.com show the Georgia Bulldogs as -7.5 point favorites against the Michigan State Spartans.

"The point spread opened up with the Bulldogs as a 5.5 point favorite with early betting action coming in heavy from the professionals on Georgia pushing the line up 2 points," stated Point-Spreads.com Publisher Thomas Jensen when asked to comment on the 2009 Capital One Bowl Betting Odds. "Reports from Orlando back up the fact that Georgia will have a big crowd at the game giving them a slight home field advantage and the professional making their college football bowl predictions clearly believe that the Georgia offense will light up Michigan State's defense based on this line move."

The total in the 2009 Capital One Bowl between Michigan State vs Georgia opened at 54 points but OVER bettors can find a total of 55 at Sportsbook.com and UNDER backers can find a 57 at BodogLife.com. The best place to bet on Georgia -7 is Bookmaker.com. The best place to wager on Michigan State +8 is JustBet.com.

"People know the south for speed and know the Big Ten for size and strength, and they want to see how the two styles compare. But both teams have power and speed and it's going to be fun to watch," said Georgia Bulldogs wide receiver Mohamed Massaquoi.

Kickoff is at 1:00 PM EST live from the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida on January 1st, 2009.
