Tommy Haas defeat fourth-seeded Serbian Novak Djokovic 7-5, 7-6(6), 4-6, 6-3 as he continues his quest into The Championships semi-finals. This will be Haas fourth appearance in a Grand Slam Semi-final. Haas will now attempt to snap an eight-match losing streak against five-time former champion and second seed Roger Federer on Friday. In their last seven meetings that Federer won the Swiss superstar went on to capture the title. Federer is riding a 17-match winning streak, while Haas is 10 matches unbeaten. Haas has hit 49 aces, been broken nine times, held 85 of 94 service games and saved 19 of 28 break points in five matches thus far.

Roger Federer outplayed and outhustled Swiss superstar Ivo Karlovic in a 6-3, 7-5, 7-6(3) win to reach his seventh straight semi-final at The Championships. Federer is riding a 17-match winning streak on the back of ATP World Tour Masters 1000 Madrid and Roland Garros titles, withstood 23 aces from Karlovic's racquet in a one-hour and 42-minute victory. Federer will meet 24th seed Tommy Haas of Germany in the semi-finals on Friday. "Against Tommy I have to play a good match from the start," said Federer. "As we saw [at Roland Garros] in Paris, it was brutal. Yes, it's gonna be tough. But I'm happy to be back into another semi-final. The 21st in a row - it's amazing. Let's see what happens now." At Grand Slam level, Federer is now 117-0 against players ranked outside the Top 5. His last loss to a player outside the Top 5 at a Grand Slam championship was to No. 30 Gustavo Kuerten at 2004 Roland Garros. With a 38-6 record on the season, Federer is attempting to capture his 60th title and 11th trophy on a grass-court. The World No. 2 has been broken three times at The Championships, saved 11 of 14 break points and hit 66 aces in five matches.
