Will Sergio Garcia beat Jim Furyk's score through 72 holes? Oddsmakers at BetUS.com have Jim Furyk as slim -120 moneyline favorite over Sergio Garcia who is listed as -110 underdog. Be sure to get your 2009 PGA Championship: Sergio Garcia vs Jim Furyk Odds & Prediction in now at BetUS.com

Jim Furyk has never won the PGA Championship, but is a US Open winner, and he has four Top 10 finishes. His last six appearances at the PGA hasn't been great, he has missed two cuts and hasn't finished better than T-29 in his last five showings. This year on Tour he's made 15 of 17 cuts with no wins and one second place finish and on third place finish. He came in second at the 2009 Memorial and third at the 2009 WGC-CA Championship. He has three other Top 10 finishes. He currently ranks T46th in Putting Average on the PGA Tour and is in 15th place in the FedEx Cup Standings..

Sergio Garcia is still looking for his first Major win and the PGA Championship seems to be the one he could win. He's finished four times in the Top 10, but has missed the cut three out of six times and was disqualified in 2007. In 2008 Sergio had his best finish where he came in second. On Tour this year he's made 10 of 12 cuts with no wins and only one Top 10 finish. He came in T-10 at the US Open. He currently ranks 12th in Career Earnings on the PGA Tour and is 114TH in the FedEx Cup Standings..
