Kansas State vs Oklahoma College Football Picks Predictions: The surprising Kansas State Wildcats are in Norman, Oklahoma tonight to take on the Sooners at Memorial Stadium. Kickoff is set for 7:00pm ET; the game will not be televised. The Wildcats have shocked many with their run to the top of the Big 12 North, but they are still not getting any love from the odds makers in this evening's clash with Oklahoma. College Football Picks Predictions at Sportsbetting.com have the Sooners listed as a -27 against the spread home favorite.

Kansas State sits atop the Big 12 North standings with a 5-3 overall mark and a 3-1 record in Big 12 play. The Wildcats have won four of their last five games, including two in a row at home versus conference opposition. Bill Synder's squad hammered Texas A&M 62-14 on October 17th, bouncing back from a 14-66 loss at Texas Tech, and they disposed of Colorado 20-6 last weekend. Despite their current good standing, the Wildcats have a tough road to plow in order to secure the Big 12 North title. After the Sooners, Kansas State has to play Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska.

Oklahoma improved to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in conference action last weekend, beating the then 25th ranked Jayhawks 35-13 in Lawrence. The easy win lifted the Sooners to third place on the Big 12 South leaderboard. While their current record is not overly impressive, if Oklahoma can run the table (at Nebraska, Texas A&M, at Texas Tech, and Oklahoma State) they could have a shot at the conference crown; however, they will need the Longhorns to slip up at some point.

This is another mediocre offense versus powerhouse defense match up. The Wildcats have struggled to score points at times this season and it almost a guarantee they will be working uphill tonight against a Sooners defense that is arguably the best in the nation. Oklahoma is allowing just 10.1 points and 264.9 yards per game on the year. Not even Bill Synder's genius will be able to overcome this mismatch.

College Football Picks Predictions Betting Trend: The Over is 7-0 dating back to October of 2004 when Kansas State played as a road dog coming off of a home win.
